05-08 September 2022

Day 1. Bogotá

To start this itinerary the passengers, have to be in Bogota before 10:00am

Between 1:00pm to 2:00pm we will take a lunch in a typical restaurant in the downtown then we will start the panoramic tour in the historical center of Bogota, also called "La Candelaria". Within this tour, we will visit the Gold Museum where we will appreciate nearly 34,000 pre-Hispanic gold pieces and more than 25,000 pre-Columbian objects. Afterward, we will visit the Casa de la Moneda and Botero Museum where we can appreciate art pieces of the artist Fernando Botero, a Colombian artist internationally recognized in different artistic techniques such as painting, drawing, and sculpture. The tour will end with a panoramic tour of the Plaza de Bolívar (The Prime Cathedral, The House of Nariño, The Liévano Palace and The Palace of Justice).

Level of the activity: easiest, walking in a flat land around 4 kilometers

At night we will go to Andres Carne de Res, without a doubt, this is the most iconic place in Bogotá when it comes to good rumba (party) and gastronomy. One of the best environments combines music, people, food and drinks, which makes this a very special and unique place.

Return to hotel and rest.

Day 2. Gachantivá "Territory of learning"

At 07:30am we will have breakfast at the hotel. Then at 09:30am we will depart from Bogotá to the municipality of Gachantiva by land transportation, where we will start with a workshop of ancestral "amasijos" because traditional Colombian cuisine is like a bridge between the culture of Boyacá and its visitors; In this case, through the workshop of Ancestral amasijos and "Traditional Flavors and Knowledge", the municipality will be visited knowing the trades of the peasants, at noon you will have lunch at a local restaurant.

Then a workshop will begin in Palmicho and Mora Blanca, where the Ancestral weaving of the Hats in Palmicho (tread wall) will be known, it is the main craft in Gachantiva that also meets the experience of the process in the cultivation of blackberry and know the only white mulberry in the country. At night we will go to the El Molino ecotourism farm, where they will have dinner and rest.

Day 3. Villa de Leyva and Ráquira

Breakfast at 7:30am. In the morning the transfer to the town of Villa de Leyva will take place, visiting its monumental square and its cobbled streets enjoying the harmony of the architectural ensemble of the colonial era in which white walls and the clay tiles, on the way back to the city of Bogotá a stop would be made in Ráquira considered as the artisan capital of Colombia where an artisan workshop of great importance was carried out even more at the time of empowering our artisans, therefore we will develop a workshop earthen.
