GEMA TOURS

RNT 30248

Located on the shores of the Caribbean Sea, its colonial houses, its centuries-old convents, its stone streets and its walls that defended the inhabitants from pirate attacks are part of the essence of Cartagena. With squares, balconies full of flowers and facades in pastel tones that change according to how they receive the sunlight, the capital of the department of Bolívar is ideal to surprise those who come to participate in world-class congresses, conventions and events.
