DAY 2 / 10 NOV SUN / ALEXANDRIA TROAS - TROIA

After breakfast, check out from your hotel at 08:30, drive 2 hours to Çanakkale, and transfer to Alexandria Troas. This ancient city was an important port on the Aegean Sea and was visited by the Apostle Paul during his missionary journeys. We will explore the archaeological remains of this once-thriving city before continuing our journey to the Troia Museum. The museum houses a wealth of artifacts and exhibits relating to the ancient city of Troia, where the legendary Trojan War took place. After lunch at a local restaurant, we will visit the Troia Ancient City, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This archaeological site contains the ruins of the city of Troia, immortalized in Homer's epic poems The Iliad and The Odyssey. We will wander through the ancient walls and gates, imagining the battles that once took place on these grounds. In the evening, we will enjoy a traditional Turkish dinner at Hayati Şef restaurant, before checking into our hotel in Çanakkale for the night. Overnight Doubletree Hilton. (B/L/D)

DAY 3 / 11 NOV MON/ GALLIPOLI

After breakfast at the hotel, we check out at 08:30 and make our way to the Gallipoli Peninsula Historical Site. This iconic site holds immense significance as the location of the famous World War I battle of Gallipoli, where Allied forces fought against the Ottoman Empire in a grueling and tragic campaign. We will explore the memorials, cemeteries, and trenches that stand as a sobering reminder of the sacrifices made during this historic conflict. Following our visit, we will enjoy a delicious lunch at a local restaurant before continuing to Istanbul which will take us about 3 hours. As we arrive in this vibrant and cosmopolitan city, we check into our hotel and settle in before enjoying dinner at Giritli restaurant. Overnight Motto Hotel Sultanahmet. (B/L/D)
